

Friday, August 22, 2014 | www.westport-news.com

Westport News

A Hearst Media Services publication/An edition of the Connecticut Post

Westport artist recognized

Artist Marlene Siff, of Westport, has received two special recognition awards in the 11th annual "Color: Bold/Subtle Juried Online International Art Exhibition" hosted by Upstream People Gallery in Omaha, Neb. Over 150 entries from around the world were received, and 32 artists were selected.

Siff showed "Full Spectrum" as part of a show of 47 paintings, works on paper and sculpture in a solo exhibition at the Walsh Art Gallery at Fairfield University in 2012.

The Omaha exhibit is featured at www.upstreampeoplegallery.com this month.